A FRESH A PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly
Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
July 9, 2017

"At that time Jesus exclaimed: 'I give praise to you Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the little ones. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will... Come to me all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon your shoulders for I am meek and humble of heart and you will find rest for yourselves.'"

Recently while watching a film clip with youth in a bible study, it was clear that they had a greater understanding of the message than I. They saw things, images, heard music, which revealed a deeper meaning and understanding of the lesson at hand. Yes, God does reveal to the childlike things which often pass us by.

The message for all of us is to place our trust and confidence in the Lord and in responding to His call, learn from Him and the little ones. He reveals Himself as meek and humble, two of the beatitudes which we are called to live. As the minister translated the beatitudes at the inauguration 'God blesses the poor in Spirit, God blesses the meek, God blesses the humble... He surely does.'

The Second Collection this weekend is for The Pastoral Solidarity Collection for the Church in Africa. Please be generous.

July 2, 2017

Dear Friends in the Lord:

Our archdiocese is taking up this special collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa to support our brothers and sisters living there. This population of the Catholic faithful is growing rapidly; but unfortunately, numerous (arch)dioceses cannot provide for the many pastoral needs of those whom they serve. With your support given in this collection, you are fostering the faith in this expanding area of the Church.

For example, Catholic education is important, not only to help children grow in knowledge and understanding, but also to help them grow spiritually. In Zimbabwe, little funding exists to support strong Catholic schools and parishes. With your support of the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa collection, schools have received funding to provide religious education for children. With your assistance, children have developed spiritually and grown in their Catholic identity.

The Church in Africa needs you to ensure that the faithful has access to resources to enable them to grow in the faith. Please be as generous as you can to this special collection. To learn more about the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa collection and who it supports, visit www.usccb.org/africa.

With gratitude and prayerful best wishes, I am,

Faithfully in Christ,
Timothy Michael Cardinal Dolan
Archbishop of New York

Every parishioner will be asked to play a part in the campaign. You will be hearing much more about our plans in the weeks ahead. In the meantime, we ask that you pray for the success of this very important undertaking

Long warm days...

The pace of life slows...

Slow down my restless
heart and fill me

with gentle compassion for all your people. Amen.
